

Allen Fredrick is a dynamic vocalist, as well as guitarist, keyboardist and harmonica player whose style is rooted in R&B, Rock, Jazz and Blues.

- He was musical director, keyboardist and singer for Maria Muldaur. He performed with Maria for five years touring throughout Europe, the U.S. and Canada.
- He was keyboardist and singer for the Hoodoo Rhythm Devils for two years where he played many showcase clubs and concerts in the San Francisco Bay area.
- He was Harmonica player for famed bluesmen Yank Rachel (She Caught the KATY) and Sleepy John Estes (Diving Duck Blues).
- He has also performed with Paul Butterfield, Dr. John, Bonnie Raitte, Elvin Bishop, Dan Hicks, Zigaboo Modelist (The Meters), Jules Broussard, The Shirelles, and The Drifters.
- He has extensive live performance experience, having played internationally for large concerts, showcase clubs and television, including the David Letterman show.

He holds a Bachelor Degree from Indiana University where he studied Jazz improvisation from renowned trombonist David Baker and composition from composers John Eaton and Iannis Xenakis. While living in Indiana he received formal voice training from Helen Tyner and guitar from now deceased jazz guitarist Maestro Paolo.

Upon relocating to California he studied piano from Duke Ellington arranger William Mathieu and from jazz pianist Si Perkoff. He took on a faculty position at Family Light Music School in Sausalito where he taught seminars and workshops in addition to classes and private lessons in music theory, improvisation and keyboard technique.

He recently returned from Central America where he worked in a world class recording studio as a producer, engineer, singer and voice-over artist for television and radio commercials. While in Central America, he was the featured artist for concerts as well as musical engagements at hotels and tourist resorts. At present, he resides in the San Francisco Bay Area where he plays at all the top hotels for corporate special events.
